

A shop we built in our eldest boys village. Juma now has a little business.

My daughter
Alex feeding
some of the village
families.

This is Kinggy. We found him in a corner of the village by his parents malnutrition and very sick. We now look after him. He goes to school and can speak English.

Sorting
clothes for our children.

Some of our children with volunteers.

Kinggy never knew how to smile or cuddle.
Look at him
now!
